Putin Announces Total Independence from ‘Rothschild–Controlled’ US Dollar??

In a statement about the news, Mr. Putin said his country is finally free from the "icy grip" of the Rothschild banking cartel and New World Order cabal.

Two years previous, President Putin prohibited Jacob Rothschild and his New World Order banking cabal from operating in Russian territory "under any circumstances."

Now, following his current election success, Putin has vowed to continue "unburdening" Russia's economy from the dangerous monopoly of the US dollar in order to guarantee Russian sovereignty in an increasingly globalized world. <https://timesofindependent.com/putin-announces-total-independence-from-rothschild-controlled-us-dollar/>

They say he's been preparing for years to make his country sanction proof. It's working too because the sanctions on Russia actually hurt the other countries more than it hurts Russia.

That makes sense, if Russia is capable of creating everything that their population needs, from cars to phones to medical supplies.

Russia has effectively been cut off from everything. Only thing russia has left is selling its cheap gas and begging for supplies from China. They are turning to Iran for military tech and North Korea for help

Russia has effectively been cut off from everything.

Except, China, India, Pakistan, Brazil, Saudi Arabia, Iran, a myriad of African countries, Venezuela, etc.

So in effect Russia's been cut off from Europe, North America, Australia and New Zealand.

Nope. Russia is getting market price from everybody but the Western countries who are setting their citizens up to freeze this winter. Psst - it's not a secret.

i completely disagree russia has more Gold and Oil than the US and let's not forget the 33Trillion of debt the US has. US is completely fucked and will turn into El Salvador overnight once the US petrodollar is removed and replaced by Digital Yuan. Come back to this post in less than 6 months from now and thank me later 🙌

Is a source even necessary? If the sanctions were even the least bit effective wouldn't he have ended this conflict months ago?

Nobody knows how this will turn out, but you don't need a source to have watched for 12 years while Putin laid a long-term plan to provide, and therefore create dependence in Europe on Russian oil and gas.

The 2022 sanctions have created hardships in EU and rifts between the members. More rifts than I've seen since its inception. I think Putin filled a need while the west "heroically" claimed to eliminate fossil fuels, with headlines and performative gestures typical of neo-liberal philosophies. Now the Ruble is flying high and backed by real resources and gold.

It remains to be seen if Putin has decisively snookered the west by calling them on their addiction to media narrative and the fiat petro-dollar while forgetting that cold houses in January make angry westerners.

Did he really say that about the Rothschilds and the new world order? Or did he just say he was freeing Russia of the US dollar?

Can't confirm he said those words in that way. Not from OP's link. But I can confirm a decade of speeches and actions by Putin to resist the neo-liberal world order. (He did use those words)

Fake news.

Putin is a huge supporter of Jews, Rothschilds, and Israel. Russia banks at the Rothschild-owned BIS.

Russia is Israel's second biggest supporter, after the US.

And Ukraine has a Jewish president and is controlled by Jewish oligarchs like Kolomoisky.

That's why this whole war is a farce.

Deception. The Rotschilds are still in cahoots with Putin. When they leaked some documents about a new nuclear plant to be built in Hungary by the Russians, it was the Rothschilds who bartered the deal between Rosatom and the two states.

Why do we think the ex KGB chief is more trustworthy than, lets say the director of the CIA?

"Our future generations will be born without Rothschild chains around their wrists and ankles. "This is the best present we can provide."

Putin is no savior, someone else's chains will be afixed firmly around those vacant wrists and ankles.

"The greatest tradition that can be passed on to your kids and grandchildren is not cash or other material things built up in life, however, rather a tradition of liberty from enslavement." Putin declares Russia to be finally free from the 'icy grip' of Lord Jacob Rothschild

As an oligarch himself I'm curious who's icy grip Putin has promised these lives to.

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) and World Bank have been major players in the global financial landscape ever considering that their creation in 1944.

Anyone who does not understand this statement right here has been left well behind the times. If you still bitch about Trump, Biden, sexual orientations and pronouns, Black Lives Matter, recession and depression then you don't understand a thing about how anything works in this life. Do yourself a favor; begin HERE.

Russia was the first country to grow wise to the ploy.

Well thats a slap in the face of Iran and Iraq to say the least!

He ordered the arrest of the Rothschild backed oligarch Mikhail Khodorkovsky who had actually made Rothschild, Henry Kissinger and Arthur Hartman directors of the Open Russia Foundation.

...and you thought Putin was just a barbarian who wanted to crush dissenting viewpoints.

I've always found the participants (allies) who took part in stopping the boxer rebellion just over a century ago quite interesting.

"An international force of some 19,000 troops was assembled, most of the soldiers coming from Japan and Russia but many also from Britain, the United States, France, Austria-Hungary, and Italy. On August 14, 1900, that force finally captured Beijing, relieving the foreigners and Christians besieged there since June 20."

<https://www.britannica.com/event/Boxer-Rebellion>

I often wonder if countries are just a show to provide us with nationalism and the old us vs them mentality which ultimately leads to the old cliché of divide and conquer.

I mean one thing we are certain of is the people in these countries that starts wars never actually have to participate in the wars they create.

Honestly the late 1800s and early 1900s was a very intriguing time period in terms of imperialism (American imperialism in particular) yet most people don't even bother to gloss over this interesting part of history.

The Philippine American war was an interesting one as well. Pretty barbaric approach to war if you're able to find the very limited information on that war.
