

Enemy of the state: the political persecution...

THOMAS FAZI MAY 12  140  29  30

For years, Guérot was one of Germany's most respected political scientists. But after she criticised the pandemic response and the proxy war in Ukraine, she found herself cast as a public enemy

Reading this and thinking about the lines running through Covid, Ukraine, EU, centralized planning and persecution of dissidents, this title for a future article came to mind: Is NATO the mercenary army of a global techno-feudalist crime cartel?

Ulrike's story would be a great intro to that investigation.

Just a small correction: Guérot's hearing on May 16 will not take place at the Bonn Labor Court but at the Cologne Regional/State Labor Court.

It's not just Germany. In the UK attempts were made to silence Richard Sakwa, Emeritus Professor of Russian and European politics at the University of Kent 🗣

Well, I guess on May 16th we'll see if "Es gibt einen Richter in Berlin." Meanwhile, maybe professor Guérot changed her mind about EU, coming closer to your skepticism. Her story makes me think about the novel "Illusioni perdute" by H.d. Balzac, kind of bildungsroman.

Thomas, I appreciate your shedding light on the persecution of Professor Guérot. I was not aware of her or of her being censored and cancelled. I have been following the similar case of Reiner Fuellmich. Your writing is clear and compelling.

Anyone living in Germany can make a little experiment: go to a public square with a protest poster condemning a certain country of being a genocider as this country is committing a genocide in plain sight. How many minutes will take until you go to jail?

"Never Again" !

Germany exemplifies this "liberal totalitarianism" spreading through out the west.

I am aware of the case of the 90 year old German woman (whose name I forget) jailed for questioning the mainstream narrative on the Holocaust.

This really says it all when a regime cannot tolerate the free speech of a 90 year old woman and feels the need to imprison her for her views!

It is an easy shift from cancelling and censoring one issue or topic deemed "sacred" and beyond debate or questioning, to expanding this to all other areas of debate and topics deemed settled or "sacred".

Censor one debate, why not censor another? This was the same kind of ridiculous prosecution of CJ Hopkins.

And of course we have the case of Reiner Fuellmich- another disgrace of the German state.

We live in a new age of censorship and totalitarianism.

I m a German political scientist and my academic career was destroyed by censorship of my ph.d. thesis in the late 1990s. The system is broken. Many talents manage to leave Germany since the 1980s when the neoliberal turn of the German universities began.

The part about her wikipedia entry being altered to include the FAZ article the day before it was even released is particularly telling.

Professor Rigg of the University of Queensland made the mistake of criticizing the conventional wisdom of the so called Climate Consensus and met a similar fate.

In academia, taking someone down on the basis of minor errors here and there is a double-edged sword, as no one is 100% immune to error. In order to help her in court, Dr Guerot's allies could pick apart publications of other well-known professors, as well as those of her detractors in academia, the way it was done with her publications.

This is tremendously important, of course. Has been since it first became apparent back at Covid.

I'd like to point out that we are not doing anything about it.

What is clearly needed is truth disseminated throughout the population a venue, a locus, a point of truth where it can be found and verified, examined.

AND

To this day no such venue exists and I've never seen any call for it from any intellectual. Or similar.

By 'similar' I mean all the serious and intelligent commentators who speak and publish on the issue and perform the functions that our intelligentsia should perform but don't and without pretensions to be 'intelligentsia'.

The closest we get from anyone at any time is publication of books, such as Mr Fazi's 'covid consensus' here. Good as far as it goes. But how far is that? Stats from gpt:

Literacy and Population Metrics

Germany's adult literacy rate: Approximately 99% .

Adult population (15 years and older): Approximately 70 million.

Estimated reach: 30,000 copies sold / 70,000,000 literate adults = ~0.043% penetration.

This suggests that even a successful sociopolitical book reaches a minuscule fraction of the literate population.

We need two things:

 - . A public forum devoted to finding the truth on questions and displaying them along with evidence and chain of reasoning and open to input from all.
 - . A concerted effort on the part of all to disseminate awareness of this forum (or forums) to all.

Note: this is not 'fact checker' forums in mind here. They in fact were simply propaganda outlets, disinformation tools.

This is more after the style of a formal debate but with the emphasis on finding provable truth rather than demonstrating 'debating skill' and making your truth appear to be the one trut.

Its pure untruth to say anything connected at this time with Germany is Manichaen becasue Mani was for peace. An absolute peaceful religious figure who was executed by his own king and his body was put on a stake outside the city walls. Lets respect the names of those who die for us.

I understand its very cool to use the term Manichaeism to describe a polarity - but Mani was not a dualist. He believed that God created everything. Even the dark

I hardly dare to write this, but i agree with Mani. I believe that nothing exists that was NOT created by the one and only Creator, whatever one chooses to call him or her.

I've found a wonderfual author - I'm reading his bigger book now - but he has written a smaller book too - that might interest you - I can only fully recommend the bigger book as I have not read anything else YET - ' Manichaeism An Early Christian Church ' - by Roland van Vliet - truly a spiritual experience and not an easy read.

Very shocking (but no longer surprising) stuff! It seems no-one can escape cancellation, once they cross one those 'red lines'.

I'll just add; it says something of you Thomas, that, despite your disagreements in the past, Ulrike Guérot still saw you as someone she could call when the machine turned against her. Well done.

I hope she wins her appeal.

Thank you for drawing attention to the plight of this person, and the pattern of similar cases in Germany. I don't think I ever heard of her, but I am glad I do now.

The EU was it seems created with this kind of Stasi feature in mind. If it did not exist would the cretins in Washington DC be able to exercise this level of control? Probably not. The EU was the wet dream of the Hayekians and Globalists. It was mainly to create one huge labor market to drive wages down and dismantle the welfare state and generally implement austerity everywhere.

If we are lucky enough to survive this next "time of madness" perhaps we will find a resting place in a future feudal society with a rule of law! Might take a few hundred years but, nevertheless, I offer prophecy!

Intellectuals who criticize Covid measures but at the same time promote virus-vax scam are part of the problem.

Supporting perverted view on EU cannot be tolerated. We could have all learned that EU is nothing else but fascist transmission of the interests of global controllers.

Yes, USA provoked the war in Ukraine, but already in the 90s USA, NATO, EU ignited the Balkan wars to dismantle Yugoslavia.

Trump, Biden, Putin, Xi Jinping follow the same strategic script - Agenda2030. Wars, genocides, inflation, tariff wars, pandemics, digital transformation - all part of Reseting how the world works.

Very well written! We have this same debate (back biting viscous snarl) going on in the USA. I say it won't be settled for a long time! Some other factors are hiding in there! (Ignorance, pig headedness, surprising unknown facts etc) just now we obviously disagree on crucial aspects. Remain calm, behave like an adult (on all sides please) give it time and stop vilifying people for their viewpoint! Let time show the facts of the case! I think the US had a nasty role in it all along. Without doubt "neocons" pulled a nasty coup in sending the minister to stop the Ukraine president from signing the peace agreement! NATO is a big weapon in the U S insane obsession with Hegemony (hedge ya money!!!).

Thankyou very much for revealing this terrible case. Developments in Germany are truly shocking - Eugyppius has also been instrumental in bringing these to an Anglophone audience.

Hopefully Merz will be found guilty of drug offences?

Just a small correction: Guérots hearing on May 16 will not take place at the labor court in Bonn, but at the regional/state labor court in Cologne.
